To and From the Grenadines 2018

Another Special Adventure April & May 2018

Our 2017 Grenadines trip was fantastic, so we want to do it again in 2018. Beginning with the trip from the Virgin Islands, sailing while in the Grenadines, and the trip back provides several options to be a part of this adventure.

On the way down island the first three days might be at sea prior to making stops at other islands along the way. Of course, while in the Grenadines we will be in the second best sailing area of the Caribbean, second only to our home cruising grounds of the Virgin Islands. For the trip back to the Virgin's we have potential itineraries to many lovely places along the way, like St. Lucia, Martinique, Dominica, Isle de Saints and Marie Gallant, Guadeloupe, Montserrat, St. Kitts and Nevis, Antigua, Barbuda, St. Eustatius, Saba, St. Barth, St. Marten, and Anguilla.

Let Us Know If You Want To Go

As with our prior special trips, we need to gauge your interest in being a part of this one. If you think you might want to do part of this trip, email ray@jalapenocharters.com so I can keep you posted as the details come together.

If this trip is not your thing, we can do a personalized charter for you another time during our season. Current plans are to do charters in the Virgin Islands during November, December and January, then some Tahoe skiing. We will return to the Virgin Islands for a couple charters in late March and early April before we start our trip towards the Grenadines.

Our 2017 season was completely booked by September, so it is not too early to start planning.

Look forward to having you aboard!
